NOTE: This affidavit is only required if you are requesting that your new address be withheld from the former spouse. If the response to each of the statements in question #3 is "has not", the Court will issue an order stating that the non-residential parent is to be sent a copy of this any subsequent Notice of Intent to Relocate that is filed with the Court. If the response to any of the statements in question #3 is "has," the Court will issue an order stating that the non-residential parent will not be sent a copy of this or any future Notice of Intent to Relocate. The Court will, however, send a notice to the non-residential parent that he/she may file a motion requesting a court hearing to determine whether it would be in the best interest of the child/ren that he/she be given the new address, and whether the parenting time order should be revisited.
