The Domestic Relations Court will develop a continuum of flexible responses if the Covid-19 public health crisis escalates or increases in size and scope. 5. All other scheduled hearings are converted to a 15 minute telephone conference on the date currently scheduled until June 1, 2020, unless otherwise noted in the case.
6. The Court has the authority, within constitutional limits, to do and direct to be done all things necessary to ensure the orderly and efficient administration of justice for the duration of the declared Covid-19 public health emergency.
7. The suspension of hearings will be until June 1, 2020, unless the Court determines an extension is necessary due to the emergency status.
